DUNKERRON

Dunkerron a property is situated on a 70 acre parkland estate bordering Kenmare Bay, on the ring of Kerry. The ruins of Dunkerron castle, stronghold of the O'Sullivan Mór, are adjacent to the 19th century house.

The House has 7 en-suite guest rooms all beautifully refurbished. Polished wooden floors, log fires and the magnificent hall staircase all contribute to the homely country house ambiance.

DUNKERRON

Kenmare town is just 2km from Dunkerron and boasts many fine shops and restaurants. There is a wonderful cosmopolitan atmosphere in the town which contrasts sharply with market days when one is as likely to meet a heard of goats as an international celebrity!

DUNKERRON

The house, located as it is on the Kenmare side of the ring of Kerry, is the ideal starting point to explore the superbly scenic circle. The Ring of Kerry encloses Ireland's highest mountain on a 110 mile drive that includes Glenbeigh, Cahirciveen, Waterville, Sneem, Kenmare itself and Killarney with it's beautiful lakes and national park.

There are a host of opportunities for a variety of activities in the immediate area. Local rivers and lakes provide a wealth of brown trout for the fishing enthusiast. Golf is available nearby and the area is a paradise for walkers.
